Patrick Howard Trampus, PHT, is a Southern California country music artist/songwriter and retired Police Officer. He was influenced at an early age by artists such as Merle Haggard, Waylon Jennings and Hank Jr., and honed his vocal skills in church and by campfires. Playing anything from Cash to Aldean, PHT Country is San Diego's premier modern Country Band!

SATURDAY, MAY 25

Whiskey Ridge is a high energy country/southern rock band from San Diego. We play at several dance halls and bars in Southern California. You'll hear some of your country favorites, new and old, and also some red dirt/Texas country songs you may or may not have ever heard. One thing is for sure, it will be rocking and get you dancing and drinking!
